JUROR JONES LINEAGE.

Editor Evening Bulletin:—I have again to ask you for a small space in your paper, in giving me an opportunity to call the attention of the editor of the Advertiser to the fact that I have a perfect right to express myself in the columns of your paper against the insinuations cast on myself and my fellow jurors by Mr. Thurston's organ. I may be "one of the Joneses" to the editor of the Advertiser but for his benefit, I will state that my father, William Claude Jones, was a Judge, an Attorney-General and an incumbent of other positions of equal responsibility and honor in this country, long before it was contaminated by adventurers of the Smith tribe. As far as changing my opinion, it is not alone the right, but the duty of a juror, when sufficient argument is advanced to call for such a change. On every trial jury a reversal of opinion, as a rule, occurs and yet eventually verdicts are sent in. I still hold that it is the duty of the honorable court, under which I serve, to protect the jury from the vicious attempt of the Advertiser to intimidate and bulldoze the jurors.

Thanking you for your space,

Yours respectfully,

ULYSSES H. JONES.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

The President of the United States having appointed Thursday, the 26th day of November, as a day of praise and Thanksgiving to Almighty God, it is our duty as loyal American Citizens to join upon that day in thanking God for His goodness to us in the past and in beseeching Him to continue and extend to us His mercies in the future.

While in our early experience with a Republican form of Government we should pray for strength and guidance to wisely, honestly and fearlessly perform the duties of citizenship, and uphold the privileges already accorded to this Territory by the United States of America.

Our rejoicings on this day of Thanksgiving should be accompanied by a sense of grave duty that will enable us to show, in the years to come, that the responsibility which has been given us shall not have been misplaced.

Now therefore, I, George R. Carter, Acting Governor of the Territory of Hawaii, hereby recommend that all our people do, on Thursday, the 26th day of November next, render thanks unto Almighty God in their homes, and at their places of worship, that they cease from all manner of work and toil and make the day one of praise and Thanksgiving.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the Seal of the Territory to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol in the City of Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, this 20th day of November in the year of our Lord (Seal) One Thousand Nine Hundred and three, and of the Independence of the United States, the one hundred and twenty-eighth.

G. R. CARTER, Acting Governor.
